

Please don't override the Wisconsin No call Legislation. We have a right to some peace and quiet during meals, which is when most calls seem to come. These banks seem to do an adequate job of stuffing our mail boxes with their solicitations. Thank you for considering this request.